

Please be careful with the BPL application. The amount of interference that will be issued, will indeed interfere with military, commercial and amateur Homeland Security communications. In addition, these signals will interfere with TV stations on Channels 2 through 6. The HDTV signal's will be hard hit by this interference. The FCC is trying to move ahead with technology, and this BPL will stop many other forms of pre-existing communications.